All films must acknowledge the Yukon Film Society (YFS) and the Klondike Institute of Art and Culture (KIAC) in their credits.

The competition begins at 5:30 pm on Friday, November 13, 2020. Participants will be given 48 hours from the time of registration to hand in a final file on Sunday, November 15, 2020. Vimeo, youtube or FTP links (wetransfer etc) accepted. Please keep your links private until after the screenings. Participants must use the prop which will be posted at the registration deadline. The prop has to be incorporated into your film in any way (physically, verbally, etc). Participants outside the Whitehorse or Dawson area may participate and can upload their film to You Tube or Vimeo or send them to us via an ftp site. We must have the link by the deadline on Sunday.

Equipment is the responsibility of the entrant, however a 50% discount on YFS and KIAC equipment is available for 48 Challenge productions. (YFS Production Membership is required at a pro-rated cost of $25.)

All material used in the films must be owned by the filmmaker. Any copyrighted materials included in the work must have been legally cleared for use. KIAC/YFS are permitted to retain an archive copy of your production for the purposes of promotion for future events. All films will be shown at screenings in Whitehorse and Dawson City on November 21,22, 2020.

A winning entry will be decided upon by a jury. The winning entry will be screened at the 2021 Dawson City International Short Film Festival and the 2021 Available Light Film Festival. Two Audience Awards will also be presented, voted on by the Whitehorse and Dawson audiences.

The Yukon Film Society and the Klondike Institute of Art and Culture are not liable for any costs, damages, injuries or liabilities that may occur during the making of your film.

The person signing this form agrees to all the above conditions.
